Chapter 1 by OrigamiNinja

As the regal dragon flew over the hill, I truly started to fear for my life. He was a bright iridescent green and solid scales covered his entire body. Sharp spikes erupted from every part of the body. Large, strong wings came from either side of the dragon. The monstrous claws reached out towards me, wanting to grab me at any moment.

The dragon came closer and closer. As he flew towards me, I thought that I would be seized and taken away. Sadly, that is justified because of our long and complicated history. Luckily, the dragon landed gently next to me.

I said, "We meet again, Terrowin."

In response, he says, "It has been a very long time, Merek. I finally have a chance to give you what you rightfully deserve. It is time to exact my revenge."

Chapter 2 by Emma

"Revenge for what?" I ask, genuinely curious. Last time we had been together was over a thousand years before and if my memory was accurate, which it usually is, we had a very long bout of destructive merriment whilst at a pub in Gondelwin resulting in the destruction of a town.

"You know what," he growled lowly in reply, his emerald scales slowly dripping off of him, and his form shifting to a more humanoid one, tanned skin with dark hair and eyes to match.
